

John J. MacDonald

Community Supporter
Member at Large

John brings his extensive experiences in agriculture, leadership and community involvement to the 4-H Trust. John obtained a degree from the NSAC and went on to work with Ag. Employment Services for 11 years and was the Executive Director of the Greater Summerside Chamber of Commerce for 15 years

John has been honored with numerous awards for his service, including induction into the Atlantic Agriculture Hall of Fame in 2013, receiving the Rotary's Paul Harris Fellow in 2011, a Community Service Award in 2005, and the Queens Jubilee Medal in 2002. Additionally, 4-H PEI & 4-H Canada have recognized his contributions by awarding him the Honorary 4-H Member Award in 2003, the Honorary 4-H Canada Member Award in 2009, and acknowledgement for 20 years of service as a rep to 4-H Canada from the Canada Federation of Agriculture.