Stipulations

- ✓ Although 4-H members can apply for more than one scholarship opportunity, applicants can only be awarded with ONE provincially administered 4-H Scholarship per year.
- ✓ A 4-H member will not be awarded the same scholarship twice

Money Awarded

- ✓ Scholarships will be given in one installment when proof of registration (at post-secondary) has been received by the Provincial 4-H Office.
- ✓ In the event that the recipient should choose to discontinue their studies at any time during the year, they are then required to notify the 4-H PEI Office and refund the remaining portion of the scholarship that has not been utilized.

In-Person Interviews

- ✓ One panel of judges will be recruited to review applications packages and conduct in-person interviews.
- ✓ Not all applicants will receive an in person interview. Only a select number of applicants will be chosen by the panel of judges for an in-person interview.
- ✓ Selection criteria for in-person interviews will be based on: Information included on Application, 4-H resume, short answer question/s and reference letter.
- ✓ For each available scholarship, five (5) 4-H members will be chosen by a panel of judges for an in-person interview. For the 2023-2024 year, this means:
 - Five 4-H members will be selected for an in-person interview for the 4-H Council Scholarship
 - Five 4-H members will be selected for an in-person interview for the 4-H Alumni Scholarship

Instructions

- ✓ Only one application form is required. Please use a pen with blue or black ink to fill out application (for photocopying purposes).
- ✓ Judges will be looking for proper grammar & overall neatness throughout the entire package
- ✓ Do not assume that information is known about you - use detail.
- ✓ Please do not staple any of the documents included in your application package
- ✓ The 4-H member is responsible for keeping a copy of his/her application form for reference and to assist with interview preparation.
- ✓ The member's topic of choice should be well thought out and will require preparation time. Members will be expected to speak on their chosen topic for a minimum of 5-7 minutes. One cue card, single-sided, is permitted with notes to assist the interviewee with their deliverance.
- ✓ Each applicant is expected to have a reference letter completed and submitted by a person of their choice. This person should not be a family member, relative or friend. The reference letter must be returned to the 4-H Specialist by the reference person via email or in a sealed and signed envelope. The 4-H member cannot submit the reference form to the Provincial Office on the individuals' behalf.
- ✓ Accommodations can be offered to members who may require assistance with the quiz or topic of choice due to a learning disability, or another medical reason, please let 4-H staff know in advance.
- ✓ Interviews will be scheduled for December 2023 - date TBD. Applicants will be notified of when they can sign up for an interview time. If applicant is unable to attend interview in person they will be expected to call in using Facetime or Zoom or another video option of the member's choosing. This must be arranged prior to interview day.
